

5. What are the criteria for well-written, believable historical fiction in terms of:

- a. plot –
- b. setting – time and place –
- c. characters –
- d. theme -
- e. language -
- f. point of view -
- g. historical facts -
- h. details of daily life –

7. Give an example for each of the above elements: