Multiethnic Literature

Chapter XI

1. Define multicultural literature:

2. List the values that children will gain from reading multiethnic literature. Following each value, identify a book that you believe exemplifies that value and state why you believe that book would develop the value.

3. What are the five major ethnic groups about whom literature has been written:

4. For each type of multicultural literature, list a book and/or author that represents quality literature in that area.

African American Literature

Native American Literature

Hispanic American Literature

Asian American Literature

Americans of European Heritage

Louise Stearns