

Informational Books

Chapter XII

1. What are two possible reasons why children choose to read biographies?
2. How have our ideas about biographies for children changed over time?
3. What are criteria that should be used in evaluating juvenile biographies?
4. What are the values involved in the reading of informational books?
5. List at least five different types of informational books:
6. How have informational books changed in the last twenty years?
7. Why is it important to help children be aware of the point of view of the author of biographies?
8. Why is anthropomorphism in informational books inappropriate?