

I – The Child and Children's Literature
III – Evaluating and Selecting Literature for Children
Chapters I and III

1. Explain what is meant by the following terms:

plot –

setting –

theme –

characterization –

style –

format –

2. What additional characteristics should be considered in evaluating a book?

3. Why should a book not be considered in isolation?

4. List 6 values that children can gain from literature

